

Transition Bath Film Season

“...the most relevant films of our time”

The 11th Hour

Monday September 15th

Narrated by Leonardo DiCaprio, this captivating documentary explores the perilous state of our planet, and the means by which we can change our course.

Escape from Suburbia

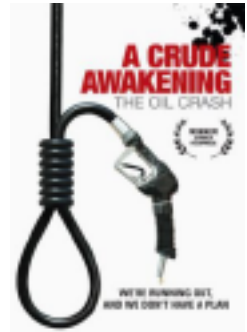

Thursday October 2nd

“Poignant.” The director of End of Suburbia delivers a sobering yet vital and ultimately positive exploration of what the second half of the Oil Age has in store for us.

A Crude Awakening

Monday October 20th

The story of how our civilization's addiction to oil puts it on a collision course with geology. Compelling, intelligent, and highly entertaining.

Rob Newman's History of Oil

Thursday November 6th

Robert Newman gets to grips with the wars and politics of the last hundred years - but rather than adhering to the history we were fed at school, this show places oil centre stage as the cause of all commotion.

Baked Alaska

Monday November 17th

America's coldest, richest State is warming ten times faster than the rest of the world. So why does Bush want to drill for more oil?

All films will be shown upstairs at the Rummer, Pulteney Weir.
Films start at 7.30pm, to be followed by a discussion.
Entry by donation.
